

AUTHOR OF ARTICLES CHECK LIST

- Title concise, brief and sufficiently informative (up to 12 words)
- Authors names correctly written and, for each author, presented as the 2 or 3 first and family name commonly used on clinic or scientific activities
- Indicated the affiliation institution to which the author is connected
- Indicated name, e-mail and postal address of the author to whom all correspondence on the article must be addressed after its publication on the journal
- Abstract follows journal guidelines for its type
- 2 to 6 keywords indicated
- Indicated the article typology (to which journal section is referred)
- Text follows journal guidelines and does not exceed limits

Acknowledgements

- Strictly respect guidelines internationally accepted, with written permission to quote names to whom the authors are grateful for the contributions

References

- Notes on references are clearly marked and numbered over the text
- Quoted documents have been carefully verified, listed and referenced according to guidelines

Illustrations (Tables and figures)

- All illustrations (tables and figures) are numbered by the order listed and have appropriate titles and legends
- Maximum number of 8 (tables + figures) or maximum number of 1 figure + 1 table in articles on Lessons in Field interventions on Public Health
- Declaration of authors retaining all rights over tables and/or figures

Publication request

- Sent by e-mail original text (including illustrations) in Microsoft Word format
- Sent by e-mail authors' license for publication duly filled in and signed by all authors
- Sent by e-mail interest statement formulary
- Sent by e-mail copy of the ethic committee opinion (if appropriate)
- Sent by e-mail financing formulary (if appropriate)
- Sent by e-mail signed consent of photographed patients or otherwise identified patients or subjects
- Sent by e-mail authors' permission to reproduce any material with copyright protection
- This check list filled in and is sent by e-mail